2011 Community Development Summit

LEGISLATORS, LENDERS, AND LEADERS

The Texas Association of Community Development Corporations (TACDC) is pleased to invite you to attend the 2011 Texas Community Development Summit on September 22, 2011 at the Texas State Capitol. The theme of this year's Community Development Summit is "New Directions." The three panels will focus on state agencies new to the community development field, new directions for current community development programs and the effects of the 2012-2013 budget on community development.

Each participant will receive a flash drive featuring a collection of timely research materials that directly impact policy discussion and future debates. Participants are welcome to bring a laptop to view research documents and take notes.

Refreshments and Rudy's BBQ lunch will be served, compliments of the event sponsors.

The Policy Summit will take place from 9:00 am to 2:30 pm (check-in starts at 8:00 am) on September 22, 2011 in the Capitol Conference Center, Room E 2.002 of the Texas State Capitol.

This year's event focuses on three important subjects:

- 1) State agencies new to the Community Development field (the Texas Veterans Commission, General Land Office, and Texas Department of Agriculture)
- 2) TDHCA and the Housing Trust Fund
- 3) Effects of the 2012-2013 budget on Communities
